WHAT COMMISSIONERS COURT DOES?

WHAT IS COMMISSIONERS COURT?

According to the Texas Constitution established in 1876, it is the governing body of each of the 254 Texas counties. The court consists of five members: four county commissioners and one county judge. Their roles combine elements of judicial, legislative, and executive functions.

WHAT ARE THE COMMISSIONERS RESPONSIBILITIES?

Each of the four county commissioners represents a certain area of the county, also known as a precinct. Aside from serving as voting members of the court, county commissioners are responsible for overseeing the maintenance in county roads, bridges and parks, and other services within their precinct. Commissioners vote on contracts given by the county worth billions of dollars.

COMMISSIONERS ARE IN CHARGE OF:

- Adopting and approving the county's budget
- Setting tax rates
- Filling vacancies and appointing officials
- Maintaining buildings, roads, and parks
- Constructing roads and bridges that are not part of the state highway system
- Settling salaries, expenses, and allowances for appointed officials
- Issuing bonds
- Overseeing courthouses, jails, and libraries

A COUNTY JUDGE THAT WILL PUT PUBLIC SAFETY AND INTEGRITY FIRST.

ERICA DAVIS
County Judge

KEY ISSUES

Education

Erica Davis, from the Sunnyside neighborhood of Houston, is running for County Judge and has the honor of endorsement by the Houston Police Officers Union.

Erica Davis was elected to the Harris County Department of Education (HCDE) on November 3, 2020. HCDE is a public entity dedicated to helping meet the needs of uniquely challenged learners and school staff through innovative programming and support services. Davis was voted as Chairwoman of Governmental Affairs, Chairwoman of Special Schools, and a member of the policy committee.

Reduction of Crime

As Chief of Staff, for Harris County Precinct One Constable's Office of Alan Rosen, Davis focuses on building bridges between law enforcement and the community. As a true public servant for the past 14 years, Davis develops educational safety seminars to all communities; provide resource fairs for low-income communities and developed multiple platforms for youth to dialogue on progressive issues

Flooding and Infrastructure

Davis graduated from the University of Houston-Central, earned her Master's in Public Affairs from the University of Texas Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs and then a Masters in Science from Columbia University-New York. Davis recently accepted admittance into Baylor University's Doctorate in Education. (Ed.D) in Learning and Organizational Change.

GEORGE RISNER

Precinct 2 County Commissioner

35 YEARS OF PUBLIC SERVICE AS A JUDGE

KEY ISSUES

Access to Healthcare

A native Texan and proud Latina who grew up on the U.S.-Mexico border, Lesley García Mitchell Briones developed a deep understanding of the struggles faced by working people and the importance of strong families and communities.

Bilingual and bicultural, she is the daughter of teachers, who taught her the importance of education, hard work, and serving others—values which have defined her and which she will bring to the office of County Commissioner for Precinct 4.

Lesley attended Harvard University and graduated with honors. She returned to the border to serve as an 8th and 10th grade teacher at two of the lowest income public schools in the country. She attended Yale Law School, where she led the Latino Law Students' public service initiatives and provided pro-bono assistance to victims of domestic abuse and juvenile offenders.

Lesley went on to become the judge of Harris County Civil Court at Law No. 4. She served with distinction and a commitment to treating everyone who came into her courtroom with respect, fairness, and empathy.

She serves as the president and co-founder of Texas Latinx Judges, and is a Houston co-chair of the National Association of Women Judges. Lesley is also an adjunct professor at the University of Houston Law Center.

"The Harris County Deputies' Organization endorses George Risner for Harris County Commissioner Precinct 2 in the March 1 Democratic Primary because the incumbent has failed," said HCDO President David Cuevas. "Our officers' lives are endangered, and our community is unsafe because Adrian Garcia and other members of Commissioners Court have failed to fund the sheriff's department. We simply do not have enough personnel to adequately respond to escalating crimes in Harris County and it is time to stop the bleeding.

"HPOU President Douglas Griffith agrees, "On behalf of the 5,300 officers of the Houston Police Department, we support George Risner for Harris County Commissioner Precinct 2 in the March 1 Democratic Primary. The increase in violent crime and the failure of the Commissioners' Court to address the staffing shortages in the district attorney's office, county jail, and sheriff's department, have created a dire public safety crisis."

The citizens of Precinct 2 are ready for a change and I want to offer a fresh approach to local governance. As a lifetime resident of Precinct 2, I believe I can create a difference in our community by making our neighborhoods safer, our justice system responsive and fair, and our county's budget fiscally sound.

CREDIBILITY

JOE JAWORSKI

Attorney General

“No one—absolutely no one—is above the law”

These are the words of Joe's grandfather, Leon Jaworski. Nearly five decades ago he took over as Watergate special prosecutor after the shocking Saturday Night Massacre. He had the guts to take on corruption in our nation's highest office by fighting for justice in our nation's highest court.

And he succeeded because no one is above the law.

The tearing down of our institutions has led us to lose faith in our democracy. We need someone who can restore integrity to public service in Texas. Someone who will use our legal system to fight for fairness and justice.

That's what Joe has done his entire career, as a lawyer and as a Mayor. We need an Attorney General with the courage of Joe's grandfather — the courage to stand up to the politically powerful. Joe is prepared to live up to that legacy.

Joe Jaworski is a third-generation Texas trial attorney and former Mayor of Galveston, Texas. Joe's term as mayor was defined by his unwavering support for and success in rebuilding Galveston's storm-devastated public housing; a political choice that made a positive difference for thousands of Island residents but cost him a second term.

Joe owns The Jaworski Law Firm, headquartered in Galveston, and his practice is 100% mediation. He specializes in mediating Defense Base Act claims, mediating hundreds of claims annually domestically and abroad; these are the claims brought by military contractors for personal injuries arising from the War on Terror.

CARLA BRAILEY

Lieutenant Governor

When asked about her top priorities, the Democrat pointed to the power grid, affordable healthcare, heartbeat bill, employment and COVID's impact on the state, but didn't go into detail. Education, though, is her passion. Dr. Brailey is a lifelong educator and says that area would be a primary focus of hers.

JULIA MALDONADO

Texas Supreme Court

Julia Maldonado believes in fairness & families first. She has been serving Harris County in the 507th District Court. She is currently the Senior Judge presiding over family court. She has demonstrated equality and fair judicial oversight in this position. Judge Maldonado is a rising star in the Democratic party and will serve the people well on the Texas Supreme Court.

SUSAN HAYES

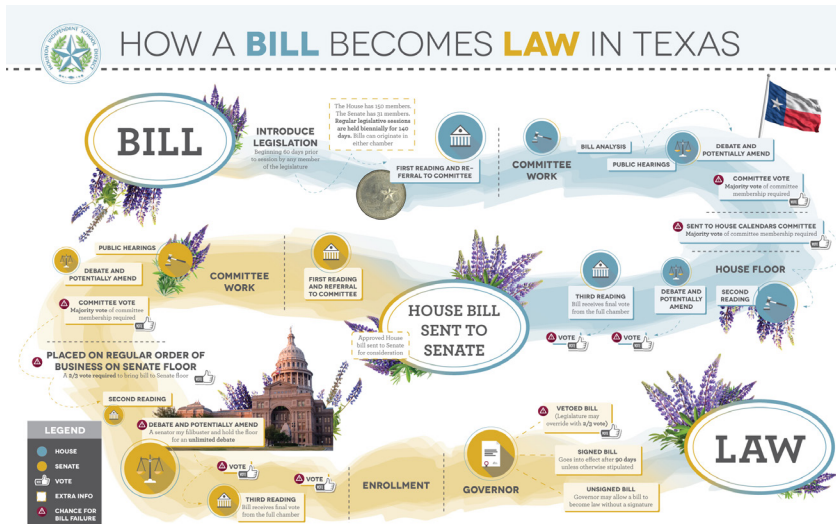

Commissioner of Agriculture

Hayes grew up in rural Texas in the middle of ranching and hunting country. But like many of her generation left for the city to get an education and make a living. Her law practice took her to advising cannabis producers and businesses, and pushing Texas to open the door to this high-value crop with the hemp program. I welcomed the opportunity to get back to the country and find a way to make an income off the land again.

“Rural families understand conservation, what it takes to feed a community, care for the land and for each other even if you disagree about politics. Rural Texas faces enough challenges that we shouldn't have to deal with the one office dedicated to small towns and family farms being riddled with missed opportunities and side-tracked by profit-seeking political hacks.” - Susan Hayes

TEXAS / CAPITAL

SENATE

SENATOR JOHN WHITMIRE

DEAN OF TEXAS SENATE
Senate District 15

HOUSE

CANDIS HOUSTON
Texas House District 142

As a parent and a former business educator with 17 years in the classroom, Houston has a deep commitment to public education. In her work as an Aldine ISD teacher for 13 years, Houston taught the next generation of small business owners and community leaders in Houston.

DR. REAGAN FLOWERS
Texas House District 147

Dr. Reagan Flowers has been at the forefront of all matters related to STEM education, leadership, entrepreneurship, community advocacy, and professional motivation throughout her career. Her monumental path tells a marvelous story of determination and a will to fight for the unempowered.

ALMA ALLEN
Texas House District 131

Alma Allen (Democratic Party) is a member of the Texas House of Representatives, representing District 131. She assumed office in 2005. Her current term ends on January 10, 2023. Allen (Democratic Party) is running for re-election to the Texas House of Representatives to represent District 131.

KEY ISSUES

Fiscal Balance

Senator John Whitmire represents the 15th Senatorial District comprised of north Houston and parts of Harris County. He was elected to the Texas Senate in 1982 after serving 10 years in the Texas House of Representatives. With over 35 years of service in the Texas Senate, Senator Whitmire ranks first in seniority and is the "Dean of the Texas Senate."

Education Financing

Senator Whitmire serves as Chair of the Senate Criminal Justice Committee and works to bring about needed changes to the adult and juvenile criminal justice systems. He is also a member of the Senate Administration Committee and the Senate Business and Commerce Committee. In addition, he serves as a member of the Senate Finance Committee where he is committed to finding appropriate solutions for funding the state's many agencies and programs.

Access for All

In addition to his leadership in criminal justice and public safety, Senator Whitmire is a passionate advocate for quality education, affordable higher education, minority and women's rights, access to quality affordable health care and mental health services, and sound business and economic development policies.

WOMEN MAKING HISTORY

LEMA BARAZI

District Court 189

Lema Barazi, a trial attorney specializing in commercial and intellectual property litigation, is from Alief Houston and is a graduate of the University of Houston for her undergraduate, Texas Tech for her MBA, and the University of Houston for her Juris Doctorate.

As a felony prosecutor, plaintiff's attorney, and defense counsel over the years at both state and federal levels, she has the knowledge and skills and, most importantly, the drive to serve the people of Harris County impartially and judiciously.

She is a strong advocate for fair, timely, and judicial equity. In addition to practicing as a partner at Llyod & Mousilli, Barazi focuses on pro bono work on securing asylum for victims fleeing persecution in their home countries in the Middle East.

FIRST ARAB-AMERICAN ELECTED JUDGE IN TEXAS

PAMELA MEDINA

Probate Court 2

The Texas Supreme Court licensed Medina in 2007. She is the owner of Medina Law Texas, PLLC. Her practice areas include estate planning, estate administration, trusts, guardianships, probate litigation, and general civil litigation.

Medina is imminently qualified to serve as your judge. She is a strict adherent to the rule of law and has an unbiased approach to legal issues. She has a keen ability to listen with compassion and attention to detail. Pamela's intellect, demeanor, and compassion are much needed in the probate court. Often, the parties are experiencing a difficult life event - coping with a lost loved one or a family member needing court intervention due to their diminished capacity and the consequent need for substantial care and support.

FIRST HISPANIC WOMAN ON PROBATE COURT IN HARRIS COUNTY

MONICA MANPREET SINGH

Civil Court 4

Born and raised in Houston, M. Monica Singh is a proud Texan and fierce advocate for her hometown. As the daughter of immigrants from India, she learned the value of hard work, the American dream, and service from an early age. These ideals helped mold her into the honest and humble person that she is today and cemented her strong respect for the law and pursuit of justice.

In addition to practicing law for 20 years and having tried over 100 cases, Monica is heavily involved in numerous civil rights organizations at a local, state, and national level. Currently, she is on the Board of Directors of the ACLU of Texas, the Texas Lyceum, and the Sikh Coalition (also serving as Trustee).

KYLE CARTER

14TH COURT OF APPEALS, PLACE 2

Judge Kyle Carter has been judge of the 125th District Court since 2009. Judge Carter is a native Houstonian, a graduate of Strake Jesuit College Preparatory, the University of Texas, and South Texas College of Law. Prior to taking the bench Judge Carter was a senior litigation associate with the Carter Law Firm, representing publicly-held corporate clients, small businesses, and individuals.

Judge Carter has also served as general counsel to the legislative committees on General Investigations and Ethics, as well as the committee on Urban Affairs. In addition to being judge of the 125th District Court, Judge Carter is currently the president of the Texas Association of District Judges. Judge Carter also works with several charitable organizations.

Judge Carter is an active Mason and Shriner, and active supporter of Shriner's Hospital and Rite Care. Judge Carter has been honored to serve as a 2008 "Man of Style" benefitting Sickle Cell research. Judge Carter is also a member of the University of Texas Chancellor's Council. Additionally, Judge Carter is a life member of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo and serves on the International Committee. Judge Carter is the founder and president of Judges at Work in Schools, a charitable organization dedicated to teaching students of all ages about the judicial system. Finally, Judge Carter is also the founder and president of Join, Inc., a charitable organization that brings together judges to address specific community needs.

NOTABLE JUDICIAL POSITIONS

Individuals with unique perspectives and of strong character.

JUANITA JACKSON

County Criminal Court 10

Judge Jackson is dedicated to making a difference in our courts by assuring that indigent defendants get excellent representation, deterring crime by developing programs that will help young offenders learn positive lifestyle choices and assuring that mentally-ill defendants get the help they need instead of simply being housed in our jails.

KELLEY ANDREWS

County Criminal Court 6

Andrews has two decades of experience in criminal law; was instrumental in creating and now presides over the misdemeanor mental health docket, believe in criminal justice and reform and works to address the underlying issues that factor into a person's contact with criminal courts.

JANNELL ROBLES

County Criminal Court 2

Robles advocates for criminal justice reform and smart-on-crime policies that use evidence and data to inform policies, encourage alternatives to incarceration, and protect against disparities at every level. Her initiatives include the Houston Center for Sobriety, the Houston Forensic Sciences Center, and preventing the privatization of Harris County Jail.

DAVID FLEISCHER

County Criminal Court 5

Judge Fleischer is committed to furthering law that is based on equality, regardless of race, gender, national origin, or orientation. Lack of economic resources should not dictate whether someone is provided a competent defense. Additionally he will promote programs that aim to reduce mass incarceration and unjust punishment.

ERIKA RAMIREZ

Criminal Court 8

She has handled misdemeanor and felony cases, served as a Criminal County Court of Law Chief Prosecutor, and has worked in the Trial Bureau, Domestic Violence, Juvenile, and Financial Crimes Divisions. When the circumstances warranted, Erika tried over thirty cases and obtained convictions from Harris County jurors.

LEAH SHAPIRO

District Court 315

Judge Shapiro presides over one of the two specialty courts in the 315th District Court to address the specific needs of victims of juvenile sex trafficking—C.A.R.E. Court: Creating Acceptance Recovery Empowerment Court. Shapiro works with the Supreme Court of Texas Children's Commission Restraints in Juvenile Court.

CLINTON "CHIP" WELLS

Family District Court 312

Judge Wells is running for reelection to the 312th Family District Court. Before his election, Wells worked as an attorney at McDowell Wells LLP, specializing in personal injury, medical malpractice, and family law matters. Additionally, he is a certified mediator in civil law and family law mediation.

With over four decades of law experience, his understanding of the law and its nuances are well-known and well-documented. As a Family District Court judge, there is an amount of compassion that must be rendered with any judgment. After all, you are dealing with families during what is often a devastating time in their lives. His experience in family law practice, coupled with his own life, aid him in applying the non-negotiable law with empathy for all involved.

Wells has been through many issues that arrive at his bench, a divorce, followed by a 28-year marriage (and counting) while raising a blended family. These are the same cases that are addressed in a family court daily. Wells is your incumbent that is adept at legal rulings with a testament to humanity.

DEDRA DAVIS

District Court 260

Judge Davis has been innovative and creative while on the bench. A true public servant serving the public. Judge Davis founded the group "Lawyer To Litigator." The group was formed as a vehicle to assist lawyers with procuring more trial experience, as well as, an avenue for litigants that are unable to afford a lawyer, to get free legal help from a licensed attorney.

AMY MARTIN

County Criminal Court 263

As a lawyer, Martin represented clients in both state and federal courts, and has argued cases before the Texas Courts of Appeal throughout the state, as well as the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals. At the 263rd District Court, Judge Martin oversees a docket of approximately 2,000 felony criminal cases.

JUDICIAL POSITIONS

JE'RELL ROGERS

County Criminal Court 14

While teaching in the Houston Independent School District at Sharpstown Middle School, Rogers taught 8th grade English Language Arts and Writing, as well as coached. Years later, he swapped out the classroom for the courtroom and in 2013, I graduated from the Paul M. Hebert Law Center at Louisiana State University (LSU).

ABIGAIL ANASTASIO

County Criminal Court 184

Collectively, Judge Anastasio has tried close to 100 jury trials and handled thousands of cases, including charges of capital murder, child abuse, sex abuse, domestic violence, human trafficking, weapons offenses, animal cruelty, and various financial crimes.

HILARY UNGER

County Criminal Court 248

As a judge she has been the chair of the Fair Defense Management Committee where she worked to improve the quality of indigent defense in Harris County and where she also initiated a pilot program to seamlessly appoint the Public Defender to represent indigent defendants.

ANGELA LANCELIN

Family District Court 245

Lancelin is an attorney who has 30 years of Public Service, has been licensed for 29 years, largely serving the Houston Metropolitan area in Texas. Her background includes: Special Litigator, Probate, Tax Liens Family Law, Administrative Law, Credit & Debt, Personal Injury, General Practice, Wills, Bankruptcy.

CHUCK SILVERMAN

County Criminal Court 183

Since his election, he has led the charge on felony bail reform. His leadership has brought traction to revise a system that has historically disproportionately affected the poor. Prior to serving as Judge, Silverman practiced law for 30+ years in state and federal trial and appellate courts.

ANDREW WRIGHT

County Criminal Court 7

One of the things Wright hopes to accomplish moving forward is to create a system of guidelines to keep cases from just laying stagnant for a long period of time. This will create clear and defined expectations to which all parties are aware of. There is a great deal of cases that cannot move forward because of issues that prolong this case without any clear expectations.

DISTRICT CLERK

WHAT THE DISTRICT CLERK DOES

The Clerk is the record-keeper for Harris County Courts; they handle funds related to cases; they coordinate the jury panel selection process; and more. It's a behind-the-scenes role that's so important to a well-run judicial system.

MARILYN BURGESS

District Clerk

ACCOMPLISHMENTS DURING TENURE AS DISTRICT CLERK

Harris County District Clerk Marilyn Burgess received the Munsterman Award for Jury Innovation. The award was for successfully implementing e-Juror, an electronic summoning system, providing free parking, coffee and meal vouchers to Harris County jurors, as well as, launching an outreach campaign to promote jury participation and diversity in appearance rates.

Launched the "Stand for Justice" campaign to promote jury service, increase appearance rates, and minority participation in jury pools.

Introduced electronic jury summons with online pre-registration & reminder notices via email and text messages.

Modernized payment systems to accept credit cards for criminal fines and payment plans, instead of money orders and cash.

Conducted an internal audit that identified over $85 million in unbilled and uncollected civil court fees going back over 20 years. Collected over $4.5 million in of these stale fees and instituted monthly billing.

Created a Year in Review Report to increase transparency for the public.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATION

WHAT THE OFFICE OF THE JUSTICE OF THE PEACE DOES

The justice of the peace presides over the justice court in cases involving misdemeanors, small civil disputes, landlord/tenant disputes and more. They also conduct inquests and may perform marriage ceremonies.

ASHLEIGH ROBERSON
Justice of the Peace, Precinct 3 Place 2

Through working for the Justice courts, Roberson received a total of 5 years in clerical work later becoming the Assistant Chief Clerk. While in this position she received her certification as a Certified Clerk of the Court as she worked alongside the presiding Judge. While working hard during the day, Roberson was able to seek Law Enforcement and complete the Police Academy. Now, that she is a Detention Officer (TCOLE Certified) in the Jail, she has seen a full circle of the spectrum of the system.

BLAIRE McCLURE
Justice of the Peace, Precinct 2 Place 2

McClure currently serves as a Civil Service Commissioner for the City of Pasadena, and part-time Community Outreach Liaison for this court. He previously served as a Harris County Precinct Judge.

Prior to, he was in the IT field for 35 years and retired from IBM in 2020 and had a strong career with IBM managing a multitude of projects local and global.

ANGELA RODRIGUEZ
Justice of the Peace, Precinct 6

Judge Angela D. Rodriguez is a native Houstonian, born and raised in Houston, Texas. Judge Rodriguez served in the award-winning Immigration clinic at her law school.

She has served as law clerk for the Law Office of Harry Gee, P.C. before devoting her time as a lawyer in private practice. Judge Rodriguez has been licensed to practice law since 2013 and has represented clients in Felony and Misdemeanor Criminal courts, Civil court and Immigration court as well as in Construction Law matters. In addition to her studies in Houston.

RON CAMPANA
Justice of the Peace

A vote for Ron Campana is a vote for a strong and principled community. It is a promise to serve all the people. There is no claim too small for fairness and justice.

Ron Campana has been practicing law in the Houston area for more than 37 years. He has raised his family here and has been your Precinct 1 neighbor for over three decades.

This Court is the court most likely to be encountered by our citizens. It thereby has the greatest duty to perform at the highest standards. Electing someone who is unprepared for or unschooled in these challenges will result in a basic failure to deliver the promise of justice. Ron is prepared for this position, educated in the issues, and committed to excellence on behalf of the people.

Ron's legal expertise has given him a strong sense of duty and the wisdom needed to make the best decisions on behalf of our citizens. He has worked with utility districts that provided clean water to the public. He has been elected as director and president of a Houston area utility district.

Ron is strongly dedicated to assuring that the needs of all are served and vows to fight for initiatives which support our seniors, youth, families, and all residents of Precinct 1.
